

VACANCY

Mental Health Foundation has a vacancy for the full-time position of:

Information & Prevention Officer

Help shape the future of mental health care on Sint Maarten.

The Mental Health Foundation (MHF) is looking for an energetic, creative, and community-minded Information & Prevention Officer.

This is not a traditional communications role.

We are looking for someone who wants to make a real difference by helping to improve mental health awareness, reduce stigma, strengthen community engagement, and tell the stories that matter.

As MHF continues to grow and prepare for a new state-of-the-art mental health facility, we are expanding our focus on prevention, community-based care, outreach, education, and partnerships across Sint Maarten.

If you enjoy connecting with people, creating impactful campaigns, speaking with stakeholders, developing social media content, organizing events, and helping communities become stronger and healthier, we would love to hear from you.

What you will do

- Lead MHF's communication and prevention initiatives.
- Develop innovative awareness campaigns on mental health topics.
- Create engaging content for social media, websites, radio, and community events.
- Build partnerships with schools, businesses, healthcare providers, community organizations, and government stakeholders.
- Organize educational activities, workshops, and public awareness events.
- Help reduce stigma surrounding mental illness.
- Advise management on communication strategies and public relations.
- Monitor and strengthen MHF's visibility and reputation within the community.
- Support the development of new community-based mental health initiatives.

Who you are

You are:

- Outgoing and comfortable engaging with diverse audiences.
- Creative, proactive, and full of ideas.

- An excellent communicator, both verbally and in writing.
- Passionate about mental health and community development.
- Able to work independently and manage multiple projects.
- Social media is savvy and familiar with digital communication tools.
- Comfortable speaking with media and representing an organization publicly.
- Flexible, resilient, and able to thrive in a dynamic environment.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in communications, Public Relations, Journalism, Marketing, or a related field.
- Experience in communication, public relations, community outreach, health promotion, or a similar role.
- Excellent English language skills; Dutch and other languages are considered an asset.
- Experience with social media management and content creation.

Why join MHF?

- Be part of the leading mental health organization on Sint Maarten.
- Contribute directly to improving the well-being of the community.
- Work in an organization that values Compassion, Togetherness, Client-Centeredness, Accountability, Innovation, and Professionalism.
- Help shape the future of mental health care during an exciting period of growth and transformation.
- Participate in innovative projects focused on prevention, education, and community-based treatment.
- Join a passionate and dedicated multidisciplinary team.

If you are ready to make an impact and help create a mentally healthier Sint Maarten, we invite you to apply and submit your motivation letter, resume, copy of your Degree via email cellis@mhf-sxm.com

Together, we can make mental health everyone's business!
